Reference

This part of the user manual will cover the configuration files used by Wazuh and define the setting options. Directions are given on how to customize the functionality of Wazuh to the unique environment and specific requirements of each installation.

Contents

- Local configuration

- Centralized configuration

- Internal configuration

- Daemons

- Tools